JOHNSON SLOUGH YACHT CLUB NEWS – APRIL 2010

SPRING IS HERE!

Johnson Slough Yacht Club is for ALL Golfview residents to enjoy. Throughout the summer months the “Commodore” (looking for a volunteer!!), along with the unlucky person dragged into serving as “Social Chairman” (looking for a volunteer!!), will plan social events for the members. Sometimes the event is free and sometimes there is a small charge. FYI for new Golfviewites, the JSYC social season starts off with a Commodore’s Party at one of our Parks or at one of our homes. Traditionally, this is held on Sunday of Memorial Day Weekend. It is at this particular party that the Purser hopes to collect the $25 per household membership fee. To bring you up to date, JSYC plans to have several social events this year. The season ends with the JSYC Annual Award Dinner (really, not many awards to give out so non-sailors will not be bored). For a little history of the dark ages of JSYC, in the distant past this particular event was heralded by a formal, printed invitation, held at an Oak Brook Hotel, semi-formal attire, and a band. (I am laughing to myself while I write this because I just remembered “Red-Eyed Joe” at the Hyatt!) Now, we have a small dinner at a small restaurant!

As one final reminder, this is YOUR community and YOUR lake – so we hope you will join the JSYC festivities! For more information, please call Linda or Ed Hoveke, at 789-0978.

It is hoped that at this time new officers can be persuaded (forced) to volunteer. We need to plan the sailing schedule/calendar (Both Juniors and Regular) for the season. Also, please come with some ideas for the summer social/party season.
